From Our Pastor:

For several years now, Brownsville UMC has hosted Girl Scout Troop #44204. I'm thankful for the ways that our congregation has supported this troop. I especially give thanks for a recent church-scout collaboration to assemble UMCOR health kits. We enjoy working with the troop, and we enjoy supporting Girl Scout cookie sales every spring!

I look forward to welcoming our scouts and their families into worship this Sunday, June 10th. Members of the troop will serve as greeters and candle lighters, and they may help in other ways. Towards the end of the worship service, the troop will share a special song that reflects how they are called to serve in the world. You won't want to miss their joyful presence in worship this Sunday!

On Tuesday, June 19th, we'll hold a Charge Conference to vote on the salary package for your incoming pastor, Rev. Justin White. This brief conference will start at 7:00 pm, and it's open to our entire congregation. Immediately following the Charge Conference, we'll move into our monthly Administrative Council meeting, which is also open to the entire congregation. Your ideas, suggestions, and input are welcome and valued. Please let me know if you have any questions about these important meetings.

I'll see you on Sunday.

Grace and Peace, Pastor Pat

Eco Tip of the Week: Transportation:

$6,251: Amount the average two - worker household saves annually by taking public transportation instead of driving a car (Source: Environmental Defense). Have you checked out the mass transit routes near your home, and do you use mass transit as often as possible? Where mass transit is infeasible, try other sustainable methods of transportation: walking, riding a bike or carpooling.
